

Korean companies in Malaysia

AI Overview

Malaysia hosts a diverse range of Korean companies across sectors including food distribution, fashion, IT, and trading, supported by the Korean Chamber of Commerce Malaysia (KOCHAM). Key Sectors and Companies

Food and Beverage: Korean food products are widely distributed in Malaysia. Companies like Inter Chain Food Supply import and distribute Korean and Thai food products to supermarkets, mini markets, restaurants, and e-commerce platforms nationwide. Popular Korean ingredients such as Gochujang are increasingly used in local cuisine, reflecting the growing demand for Korean food in Malaysia.

Fashion and Accessories: Several Korean trading companies specialize in fashion and accessories. Examples include HiBunny Accessories, which supplies women's jewelry and cosmetics from Korea, and Hanni Collection, offering high-quality fashion accessories sourced from Korea and other Asian countries. These companies often provide wholesale and retail services.

IT and Trading: Companies like Barudotcom Sdn Bhd focus on IT products and Korean wallpaper distribution, catering to Southeast Asia and expanding globally. CUBUS, established in 2006, provides multi-dimensional business solutions, including product and service distribution.

Herbal and Health Products: Omega Herbs Malaysia specializes in herbal, halal, and vegetarian men's health products, partnering with Korean manufacturers and suppliers.

Employment Opportunities Korean companies in Malaysia offer roles in operations, HR, marketing, and client support, particularly for positions involving Korean clients or Korean brands such as mom-and-baby products. Job opportunities are frequently listed on platforms like JobStreet, with positions ranging from warehouse management to social media marketing for Korean brands.

Business Support and Networking The Korean Chamber of Commerce Malaysia (KOCHAM), founded in 2009, supports Korean businesses by facilitating networking, trade promotion, and bilateral business relations between Malaysia and Korea. KOC...
