

Where can I find custom-made trapezoidal cable trays

AI Overview

Trapezoidal cable trays can be sourced from specialized manufacturers, B2B suppliers, and online retailers offering a range of materials, sizes, and certifications. Recommended Suppliers and Retailers

1. Shandong Hongfeng Import and Export Co., Ltd. This company offers trapezoidal steel wire and aluminum cable trays suitable for high and low voltage power cables, with strong corrosion resistance, excellent heat dissipation, and easy installation. They provide customization options and hold ISO 9001, SGS, and CE certifications, making them ideal for industrial and construction applications. Their products are widely used in communication, solar power, thermal power, and factory construction projects.
2. CableOrganizer CableOrganizer provides a variety of cable tray systems, including basket, ladder, and solid trays. They cater to both overhead and under-floor installations and offer products suitable for large quantities of power or data cables. Their platform is useful for selecting trays based on your specific application requirements.
3. McMaster-Carr McMaster-Carr offers a wide selection of over 850 cable tray products, including wire mesh and ladder styles. Their trays are highly corrosion-resistant and can be cut, bent, and connected to fit custom layouts. They also provide same-day or next-day delivery, which is convenient for urgent projects.
4. Amazon For smaller-scale or office applications, Amazon offers under-desk trapezoidal cable management trays with features like easy cable insertion, scratch-resistant clips, and minimalist design. These are ideal for organizing power cords and data cables in workspaces.
5. Trayco Trayco specializes in Belgian-made cable trays, mesh trays, and cable ladders. They provide consulting and installation guidance, as well as customized solutions for industrial and commercial projects. Trayco is suitable if you need tailored support a...
